

What are humanist organisations?

Humanists come together to support one another, celebrate life's biggest milestones, and work for a fairer, more rational world.

1

The Happy Human symbol,

used by humanist organisations around the world, represents our shared humanity and human potential.

2

For well over a century,

Humanists UK has worked for a tolerant society where rational thinking and kindness prevail.

3

