How do humanists find meaning in life?

Humanists believe that life's meaning is not given to us, but that human beings can create meaning and happiness themselves.

1

Humanists find purpose in relationships, creativity, helping others, and making a positive impact on the world around us.

2

Each person's path is different. Humanists support everyone's right to think for themselves and shape their own life.

3

Humanists UK humanists.uk