

Clause 11 of the Bill with the words Ed Balls' amendment (amendment number 70) would insert in red

- (4) It is the duty of the governing body and head teacher of any school in which PSHE is provided in pursuance of this Part to secure that the principles set out in subsections (5) to (7) are complied with.
- (5) The first principle is that information presented in the course of providing PSHE should be accurate and balanced.
- (6) The second principle is that PSHE should be taught in a way that—
 - (a) is appropriate to the ages of the pupils concerned and to their religious and cultural backgrounds, and also
 - (b) reflects a reasonable range of religious, cultural and other perspectives.
- (7) The third principle is that PSHE should be taught in a way that—
 - (a) endeavours to promote equality,
 - (b) encourages acceptance of diversity, and
 - (c) emphasises the importance of both rights and responsibilities.
- (8) Subsections (4) to (7) are not to be read as preventing the governing body or head teacher of a school within subsection (7B) from causing or allowing PSHE to be taught in a way that reflects the school's religious character.
- (9) A school is within this subsection if it is designated as a school having a religious character by an order made by the Secretary of State under section 69(3) of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998.
